RMR

Substance reference telegram communicated Foreign Minister today by DCM. Foreign Minister reiterated position set forth EMBTEL 699, saying Dominican Republic could not support resolution until on-site inspections convinced US no nuclear weapons Cuba.

Drawing on Department circular telegram 881, DCM assured Foreign Minister that US puts little if any trust in promises and assurances Communist governments and added reassurance re US determination deal with Cuban problem. When explained that proposed agreement among nation American States provided potential mechanism insure no nuclear weapons in Cuba and presumably would not be implemented unless Cuba participated and agreed to verification, Foreign Minister said would consider matter again.
